

Being a DIK Walkthrough & Endings – Intro

The game is about choices, so what you answer will have consequences. But there are:

Relationship points

You can earn relationship points with all the characters, and we will mark each relationship point you can earn as (+1 Relationship point CharacterName)

DIK/CHICK Meter

Your choices will make you a chick or a dik, and you need enough chick or dik points for some scenes and relationship points. We will underline the dik point and write on italic the chick points

Special Renders

We will mark them during the playthrough

Vault Codes

You will find them during the walkthrough, but here is the complete list > Vault Codes
